VI. Old Business

- A. Licenses: I would like to discuss the various licenses carried by the City of Caledonia for business such as Soft Drink Licenses and Pool Table Licenses. Is there a reason to continue licensing some of these items or is it time to terminate the practice?

Council Action:

- B. Alcohol License Fees: Enclosed is a survey result of a few cities sampled for their liquor license fees. Most cities are those with approximately the same population as Caledonia, but others representative of Houston County. Addendum #4

Council Action:

- C. Freedom to Breathe Act: Council Members Vick and Klug along with Clerk Nelson reviewed documents received concerning the Freedom to Breathe Act which was implemented October 1, 2007 in the State of Minnesota. We can briefly summarize the understanding we have of the new law and any obligations the City has because of it.

Council Action:

- D. Midwest Wireless Agreement: Midwest Wireless, now purchased by Alltel, has an agreement with the City of Caledonia which takes into consideration a rental fee for placing antennas on the water tower near Ramsey Street. The agreement also stipulates a means of calculating annual increases or decreases dependant upon the consumer price index change from the previous year. Since the first year has now nearly expired, we have encountered an oddity for calculating the new rate and will explain that to the Council at the meeting. Addendum #5

VII. New Business

- A. Parking: I wish to discuss Chapter 153.309 with the Council at the meeting. Addendum #6

Council Action:

- B. Property Uses, Meter Removal, Rates: The City has been receiving a number of requests for change, particularly with properties purchased by others which had previously been setup for 1 kind of use and the owner now intends to change that use. I will explain in detail at the meeting.

Council Action:

- C. Contract for Services: Enclosed with the Agenda is a Contract for professional services from the Southeast Minnesota Development Corporation, addressing the position filled by Joyce Iverson as EDA Director. The proposal for calendar year 2008 is a fee of $33,422 the 2007 contract amount was $32,292, therefore, being an increase of $1,130 or 3.5%. Addendum #7
