V. Old Business

A. Expense Reimbursement: A couple of meetings ago, the Council addressed a request of Matt Blocker to pay a $25 fee for his re-certification as a Journey Lineman for a period of 4 years. At the time Clerk Nelson told the Council he would check other employees’ certifications to see whether or not the City made payment. Those inquiries have been made and City employees responded that the City has paid for many years any certification renewals they were obligated to have. I recommend at this time that the City reimburse Mr. Blocker for his $25 re-certification fee, keeping the same benefits and privileges extended to Mr. Blocker as other City employees and their certifications.
